THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.ESWARAIAH

W.P.NO.23042 OF 2005

Dt.26.10.2005

Between:

Alla Sundaramma w/o.Ram Rddy … Petitioner

And

The District Collelctor, Prakasam District

At Ongole and 3 others. … Respondents

ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies.

The petitioner submits that she is physically handicapped O.C. woman and a representation has been made on 2.10.2005 to the Revenue Divisional Officer, Markapuram to reserve the Fair Price Shop dealer of T.Cherlopalli village in favour of handicapped women. But interviews have been conducted pursuant to the notification dated 22.9.2005 on 4.10.2005.

In the absence of any Rule or Order of the Government to reserve it in favour of handicapped, I am of the opinion that the petitioner is not entitled to seek a direction to allot the said shop in favour of handicapped person. Therefore, I do not see any violation of the Government Orders. If there is any violation of any Rule or Order, it is always open to the petitioner to question the same. But, after issuing the notification on 22.9.2005, the representation filed by some of the villagers on 2.10.2005 is of no avail. I do not see any merit in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
